Microsoft Edge (Browser) Tip #4

When reading an article in Edge and you want to find something out about any word highlight the word (hold down left mouse button and drag over word to highlight, put cursor on highlighted word and click the right mouse button. Menu will appear – Click left mouse on Ask Cortana. Pertinent information will show up on the right side of the screen. You can scroll to enjoy all of the information and/or click on any blue items for more info.