WHAT WE SUPPORT

The Friends of the San Bruno Public Library is a 100% volunteer organization. Our goal is to provide financial assistance and help support programs and projects not included in the city library budget.

Our funds have helped provide:

- Children and teens summer reading programs
- Baby sign language classes
- Computers for after school homework center
- Redesign of the Library magazine room
- Preservation materials for historical items

WHAT DO FRIENDS DO?

- Organize donated books and media for the ongoing sales in the library lobby
- Organize book sales twice a year
- Manage online book sales
- Host professional book appraisals
- Supply books to local schools and to the Big Lift Little Libraries in San Bruno

YES, I WANT TO VOLUNTEER!

Please mark opportunities that interest you:

- Sorting donated books
- Pricing and stocking books for lobby sales
- Choosing, pricing and arranging books in display case
- Delivering children's books to Little Library sites
- Pricing books for online sales and special sales
- Media and publicity
- Special events
